Montaigne On Friendship Analysis

As you read "Of Cannibals" and "Of Friendship" by Michel de Montaigne, here are some study questions to help you find the texts' main arguments and analyze them: 1.) The form of The Essays is just as important as The Essays' content. (Montaigne invented the essay as we know it, as a form of writing.) "Essayer," in French, means "to try" or "to test," so when Montaigne chose to call his writings "Essais," he was basically titling them, "Ideas that I'm testing ...
